1. An email to a reviewer is hate mail? But a hateful review is a love letter?20 minutes ago from web
2. Critics can say as they please, but no one else can? You open the door and it's open.22 minutes ago from web
3. @roncharles Her information was public. Sorry my wit isn't as sharp as your Ron.24 minutes ago from web in reply to roncharles
4. Interesting, reviewers can say what they want. But when writers speak up they're "going after" reviewers.32 minutes ago from web
5. @roncharles I'm not going after anyone Ron -- It's about editors who allow reviewers to give the plot away. You should try reading the books34 minutes ago from web in reply to roncharles

6. Thanks for your support and kindness. I love that writers have a way to talk back now.39 minutes ago from web
7. @NYFilmCritic I guess that's why the Times is getting rid of the Globe. They read the reviews.40 minutes ago from web in reply to NYFilmCritic
8. @shiitakehappens oops.42 minutes ago from web in reply to shiitakehappens
9. @tineoighear That's the thing -- if you're polite and keep your mouth shut, you never think to run if you have to. Or fight back.42 minutes ago from web in reply to tineoighear
10. @DeniseMcClain I agree with you -- never give the plot away! That's a book report. Thanks.43 minutes ago from web in reply to DeniseMcClain
11. @joanne_baines That was the perfect tweet to cheer me! xxxx44 minutes ago from web in reply to joanne_baines
12. @susanorlean You're probably right --- they don't want to favor hometown girl. Little do they know, NY is my real hometown.xx44 minutes ago from web in reply to susanorlean
13. @mcgilh I think I get it- she doesn't believe in fairy tales and she doesn't want to think there are real nightmaresabout 4 hours ago from web in reply to mcgilh
14. @Georgia_McBride Devoted readers? I certainly am that when it comes to writers I love -- RB I mean you. Can read you again and againabout 4 hours ago from web in reply to Georgia_McBride
15. @Georgia_McBride The fan/reader discussion is interesting. I don't think of writers as having fans, but as having readers.about 4 hours ago from web in reply to Georgia_McBride
16. And we writers don't have to say nothing when someone tries to destroy us.about 5 hours ago from web
17. Girls are taught to be gracious and keep their mouths shut. We don't have to.about 5 hours ago from web
18. Something tells me darkonfire is a critic. And I don't have fans, I have readers.about 6 hours ago from web
19. If you want to tell Roberta Silman off her phone is . Rsilman@.. Tell her what u think of snarky critics.about 6 hours ago from web
20. My single bad review in my hometown. This is a town where a barking dog is the second top story on the newsabout 6 hours ago from web
